HOGAN MAY YET BE ALIVE.

The Air Ship's Inventor Thinks the Aeronaut Was Not Lost.

A despatch from Chicago this morning indi cates that it is possible that Prof. Edward D. Hogan, the aeronaut, who sailed from this city in Peter Carmont Campbell's air-ship a year and a half ago and was supposed to have been lost off Sandy Hook, is yet alive. According to this despatch Campbell, who is now in Chicago, save he met several of Hogan's relatives in Datroit who were not at all grieved at Hogan's loss. He believed they knew that Hogan was alive, though keeping his where Mrs. Hogan lives in Jackson, Mich. Hoga ton police is in Acting Superintendent Byrnes's He Always Claimed He Was Presicustody at Police Headquarters to-day. He dent Harrison's Cousin.

Capt. Relly, of the Thirtieta street police Station, has not yet beard from the relatives of Frederick Harrison, the Chicago lawyer, the jewelry store of William C. Morse, at #68 who used to say he was a relative of Presiden Harrison, and who died quite unexpected! last evening at 154 West Twenty-second street, of Bright's disease. Mr. Harrison and Geo. Hollenbach, a friend for whom he was doing some law business, came on from Chicago four weeks ago. They man looked at them for a while and suddenly roomed together at 154 West Twenty-second About two weeks ago Mr. Harrison became iil and had to take to his bed. Mr. Holienbach, who is connected with the Pennsyl for the street, where he jumped into a sleigh vanta Railroad, said this morning that he had that was waiting at the door. The whip came known Mr. Harrison in a business way for four down on the horses and he started away at a years.

If frequently heard him refer to his relationship to the President, "said Mr. Hollenbach, "but the were knew him to declare just what it was—a cousin of some kind, I believe.

When he became ill I employed Dr. Curry of St. W. Sixty-first st. to attend him, and never left him myself. I had no idea that his illness would prove fatal. Why, at 2 o'clook yesterday afternood, the doctor assured me that my friend would be out by Monday, sure, and Mr. Harrison felt the same conflience.

Only an hour before he death he was talking to me said slitting up in bed. He wanteu to send a business letter to a friend, and I wrote for him at his dictation. Then he stretched hims if out comfortably and appeared to doze, An hour later I gaked him a question. He did not answer. I looked at him and found him dead. "I frequently heard bim refer to his relation-The sacension was made at il A. M., July 1883, from the Nashau Gas Company's yard, orner of Kent arenue and Clymer street, Silliamsburg.

There was a large crowd gathered to witness he event. Hogan was an experienced acrossus and had made all his preparations with great care.

After the gas-bag was filled, and he had everyfring frestly, the ropes were cast off and the sir. Hogan raised and lowered his vessel, sailed some distance in the tech of the wind and then some distance in the tech of the wind and then some distance in the tech of the wind and then some distance in the tech of the wind and then some distance in the tech of the wind and then in some way unknown the propeller snapped off and fell to the ground.

For a few minutes after that Hogan could be seen climbing like a monkey in and out through the regime. He appeared cool and collected.
